TRADING TERMS

SCOPE

These trading terms apply to all offer, quotations and sales by Frederick Hyde Ltd trading as Tom and Will, (The Company), of musical instruments, bags and accessories. Acceptance by the Company of, the Dealer's offer in this application form shall create a binding agreement incorporating these trading terms. These trading terms shall prevail over any other terms and conditions contained in or referred to in the Dealer's order or elsewhere or implied by trade custom or course of dealing unless those other terms or conditions are specifically agreed to in writing by a duly authorised director or company secretary of the Company and any purported provisions to the contrary are hereby excluded or extinguished. Every deviation from or modification of these trading terms requires the express written agreement of the Company in each instance. Modification or waiver of any provision in one instance shall not constitute modification or waiver in any other instance.

PRICES

The Dealer will be invoiced at the prevailing trade price, less trade discount plus VAT. The recommended trade price will be that shown in the price list applicable at the time of despatch, unless otherwise advised. The Company shall have the right at any time up until the date of despatch to withdraw any discount and/or to revise prices.

PAYMENT TERMS

The purchase price for each order shall be paid in full. Statements will be issued monthly and payment is due no later than 30 days after the invoice date. A 3.5% settlement discount is offered for payment within 7 days of invoice. Failure to pay within the terms will result in the withholding of supply and a service fee. Notwithstanding this the Company is entitled, at its sole option, to require earlier payment of all or part of the purchase price of any order, including full payment at the time the order is placed. No counterclaim or set-off by the Dealer may be deducted from any payment due on any account whatsoever. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company may maintain an action against the Dealer for the price of the goods at any time after payment of price of the goods has become due, even though property of those goods may not yet have passed to the Dealer. If the Dealer fails to make any payment when due, the Company is entitled, without judicial intervention to require immediate payment of all outstanding orders, deem the related order and all other order by the Dealer cancelled or to delay delivery on such orders without prejudice to the Company other rights or remedies (including the right to recover damages). Any extension of credit allowed may be changed or withdrawn at any time. If due to such events or circumstances the Company has insufficient stocks to meet all its commitments it may apportion available stocks between customers at its sole discretion.

FREIGHT

A carriage charge will be made on any order under £200 in value for delivery in the United Kingdom mainland, IOW and Northern Ireland. Carriage charges for deliveries in the Highlands & Islands, Channel Islands and Southern Ireland will be agreed with the Dealer before despatch of goods.

DELIVERY AND RISK

- Delivery dates specified in any quotation, order acceptance form or elsewhere are approximate only and not of any contractual effect. Delivery shall be at the Dealer's premises unless otherwise agreed by the Company in its order form. Risk of loss of or damage to the goods shall pass to the Dealer on delivery to its premises as stipulated in the order or when placed in their possession or that of any carrier or transport provided by the Dealer, whichever shall occur first.
- If the Dealer refuses or fails to take delivery of goods tendered in accordance with these trading terms risk of loss or damage to the goods shall nonetheless pass to the Dealer. Without prejudice to any other rights the Company may have against the Dealer (for breach of contract or otherwise) the Company shall be entitled both to immediate payment in full for the goods so tendered and either to effect delivery by whatever means it considers most appropriate or to store those goods at the risk of the Dealer. In addition to the purchase price the Dealer shall pay on demand all cost of such storage and any additional costs incurred as a result of such refusal or failure. Following the expiry of 60 days from the agreed date for delivery the Company shall be entitled to dispose of the goods in such manner as it may determine and may set off any proceeds of sale against any sums due to it from the Dealer, but shall be under no duty to account to the Dealer of any excess (which shall be retained by the Company as agreed compensation for the Dealer's breach).
- The Company shall be treated as having fulfilled its contractual obligations in respect of any delivery notwithstanding that the quantity may be less than the quantity specified in the contract. The Dealer shall not be entitled to reject the goods in whole or in part by reason of short delivery. The Dealer shall pay in full not withstanding short delivery or non-delivery unless the shortfall has not been made good by the due date for payment whereupon the Dealer shall only be obliged to pay for the quantity actually delivered. All claims not so notified are waived.
- Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the Company shall be entitled to deliver the goods by instalments. In such cases each instalment shall constitute a separate contact and any defect in any one or more instalments shall not entitle the Dealer to repudiate the contract as a whole nor to cancel any subsequent instalment.

GOODS RETURNED

In those cases where the Company, agrees to accept returned stock, credit will only be issued subject to the following conditions:

- Faulty product: in this case claims will only be recognised if lodged within three (3) days.
- Transit damage claims: in this case claims will only be recognised if lodged within three (3) days of receipt of goods.

The Company must be contacted prior to goods being returned for credit purposes. A Return Authorisation number will then be issued. Failure to follow this procedure will result in the Company refusing delivery in all instances.

PASSING OF PROPERTY

- The Company reserves the following rights in relation to products supplied by it until:
 - Payment in full of the price due and payable to the Company in respect of the same order (including any interest or other payment due in respect of those goods); and (as a separate obligation) until
 - Payment in full of all other indebtedness of the Dealer to the Company.
 - Legal ownership of the products, whereby the Dealer agrees to hold the goods as bailee for the Company and shall store such goods in such a way as to enable them to be readily identified as the property of the Company. In this regard the Dealer shall keep proper and accurate records to enable the Company to distinguish goods for which the purchase price has been paid in full from those goods for which any part of such purchase is outstanding.
 - To enter the Dealer's premises, (or the premises of any associated company or agent where the goods are located) without liability for trespass or any resulting damage and retake possession of the products.
 - To keep or resell any product repossessed pursuant to ii) above.
- If any of the products are resold by the Dealer, the Dealer shall hold such part of the proceeds of any such sale in a separate identifiable account as beneficial property of the Company and shall pay such amount to the Company upon request. Notwithstanding the provisions above the Company shall be entitled to maintain an action against the Dealer for the purchase price and risk of the products shall pass to the Dealer upon delivery.
- If any sum paid by the Dealer is less than all the amounts then due, the Company may (notwithstanding any direction to the contrary by the Dealer) apply that sum to amounts due in respect of goods which at that time have been re-sold or otherwise disposed of by the dealer, before applying any part of that sum to goods still in the Dealer's possession.
